

I want to comment on the telephone privacy act. Please don't lessen this law. We were bombarded with calls every night at dinner time and later. One or two calls a night was not uncommon. Now we might get one per week. These calls are very annoying and not necessary.
Thanks for reading my comments